

APWWS calls on women commission & legal service authority

November 1, 2016

Itanagar, Oct 31: The Central Executive Members of Arunachal Pradesh Women's Welfare Society led by its President and Secretary General Dipti Bengia Tadar and Kani Nada Maling had a meeting with APSWC chairperson Mitali Tingkhatra and other members of the Commission and Member Secretary, AP State Legal Services Authority to discuss on issues pertaining to Uniform Civil Code (UCC). The UCC advocated for replacement of the personal laws with a common set governing every citizen. These laws are distinguished from public law and cover marriage, divorce, inheritance, adoption and maintenance. Article 44 of the Directive Principles in India sets its implementation as duty of the State.

At the call of the Society, the Women Commission and Legal Service authority assured to conduct an awareness programme soon in Itanagar.
